Webinar

Hand Hygiene: Efficacy Update and Educator Tools

Thursday, February 11, 2016

1 p.m. EASTERN

New Competencies

Attendees will be made aware of the effects of different hand hygiene interventions (eg: plain soap and water; antibacterial soap and water; soap and water plus hand sanitizer, etc)

Attendees will be aware of recent research on hand hygiene and what it might mean in their work to communicate with consumers on hand hygiene as critical to disease prevention.

Attendees will have a deeper understanding of antibacterial products and the view of leading experts on whether these products lead to antibiotic resistance.

Attendees will be made aware of evidence-based, free consumer education resources.
